ORDER

Currently before the Court is Defendant Jose Guadalupe Rojas-Guzman's Motion for Judgment of Acquittal or for a New Trial under Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 29 and 33 (#157). The Court heard oral argument on April 2, 2012. This order also incorporates the findings made at oral argument.

BACKGROUND

In November 2011, the grand jury indicted Defendant Jose Guadalupe Rojas-Guzman ("Defendant") and co-defendant Mario Adrian Lopez-Fernandez ("Lopez") on three counts. (Superseding Indictment (#70)). Count One alleged that, between approximately September 7, 2010 and September 11, 2010, Defendant and Lopez conspired with Aurelio Nunes-Molina ("Nunes") to possess with intent to distribute 50 grams or more of methamphetamine, in violation of 21 U.S.C. §§ 841(a)(1), (b)(1)(A), 846 and 18 U.S.C. § 2. (Id. at 1-2). Count Two alleged that, on September 7, 2010, Defendant and Lopez knowingly distributed 50 grams or more of methamphetamine in violation of 21 U.S.C. § 841(a)(1), (b)(1)(A) and 18 U.S.C. § 2. (Id. at 2). Count Three alleged that, on September 11, 2010, Defendant and Lopez knowingly

1 possessed with intent to distribute 50 grams or more of methamphetamine in violation of 21
2 U.S.C. § 841(a)(1), (b)(1)(A) and 18 U.S.C. § 2. (Id.).

3 In December 2011, the Honorable Edward C. Reed conducted a five-day jury trial. (See 4 Minutes of Proceedings (#120, 121, 125, 130, 131)). At the end of the government's case,
5 Defendant moved for a judgment of acquittal pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure
6 29(a). (See Minutes of Proceedings (#130) at 2). Judge Reed denied the motion. (Id.). At 7 the end of the defense's case, Defendant renewed his motion for judgment of acquittal. (Id.
8 at 3). Judge Reed denied the motion. (Id.). The jury found Defendant guilty on all three 9 counts. (Verdict Form (#135)).

10 LEGAL STANDARD

11 Pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 29, "the court on the defendant's motion must enter a 12 judgment of acquittal of any offense for which the evidence is insufficient to sustain a 13 conviction." Fed. R. Crim. P. 29(a). "If the jury has returned a guilty verdict, the court may set 14 aside the verdict and enter an acquittal." Fed. R. Crim. P. 29(c)(2). In reviewing sufficiency 15 of the evidence, the "test is whether the evidence and all reasonable inferences which may 16 be drawn from it, when viewed in the light most favorable to the government, sustain the 17 verdict." United States v. Terry, 911 F.2d 272, 278 (9th Cir. 1990). There is sufficient 18 evidence to support a conviction if "any rational trier of fact could have found the essential 19 elements of the crime beyond a reasonable doubt." United States v. Sullivan, 522 F.3d 967, 20 974 (9th Cir. 2008). "Conflicting evidence is to be resolved in favor of the jury verdict, and 'all 21 reasonable inferences are to be drawn in favor of the government.'" United States v. Corona-
22 Verbera, 509 F.3d 1105, 1117 (9th Cir. 2007).

23 DISCUSSION

24 Defendant argues that his conviction must be reversed because the government 25 failed to introduce sufficient evidence demonstrating his guilt in all three counts. (Mot. for 26 Acquittal (#157) at 7). He asserts that the government has attempted to sustain a conviction
27 on circumstantial evidence alone. (Id. at 8). Although he recognizes that circumstantial 28 evidence can support a conviction, the circumstantial evidence in this case only amounts to

1 reasonable speculation which is insufficient to support a conviction. (Id.). Defendant argues
2 that the only evidence that the government presented were intercepted telephone 3 conversations between Defendant and other individuals that were mis-interpreted as 4 supporting the claims that he had aided and abetted Lopez and Nunes in their illegal
5 transactions involving the distribution and sale of methamphetamine. (Id.).

6 In response, the government asserts that the jury considered both direct and 7 circumstantial evidence in this case. (Opp'n to Mot. for Acquittal (#166) at 8). The 8 government asserts that there was direct evidence in the form of Lopez's trial testimony 9 regarding the events charged in the superseding indictment and task force agents' testimonies 10 regarding their personal observations on September 11, 2010. (Id.). The government also 11 argues that there was an overwhelming amount of circumstantial evidence regarding 12 Defendant's guilt in the case. (Id.).

13 The Court finds that there is sufficient evidence in this case to sustain Defendant's 14 conviction on all three counts. At trial, the government presented evidence that Drug 15 Enforcement Administration ("DEA") agents had obtained authorization to intercept 16 communications from cellular phone number (650) 477-5763, which was used by Defendant, 17 and cellular phone number (714) 353-4081, which was used by both Lopez and Nunes. The 18 DEA also had obtained a court order authorizing the GPS tracking of cellular phone number 19 (714) 353-4081.

20 The government presented evidence that, on September 7, 2010, a DEA confidential 21 source ("CS") called cellular number (714) 353-4081 to order four ounces of 22 methamphetamine, which the CS referred to as "four oranges." Two minutes after taking the 23 CS's order, Nunes called Defendant on cellular number (650) 477-5763 and told the 24 Defendant that the "guy that has the Jetta" (CS) wants "four apples," referring to the four 25 ounces of methamphetamine. Defendant responded "Damn. That's dangerous, isn't it?" and 26 then told Nunes to do it, but to tell the CS "no less than 1000 . . . because the work is really 27 good." Three minutes later Nunes called the CS and said, "I just talked with my boss and he 28 says that if you want them it's a grand man." The CS agreed to the $1000 per ounce price.

1 Twenty minutes later, Defendant called Nunes and asked what the guy in the Jetta had said.
2 Nunes told Defendant that the CS had "said yes." Defendant then told Nunes "you go" or 3 "both you guys go," "because this guy is capable of taking it away from us." Within the hour
4 Nunes and Lopez, as directed by Defendant, went to the transaction place driving an Infiniti
5 with Nevada license plates 634 XBR. Lopez sold the CS four ounces of methamphetamine
6 for $4000. Shortly after the sale, Defendant called cellular number (714) 353-4081 and asked
7 whether they had seen that guy "with the four." Lopez told Defendant, "Yeah, we came back 8 already." As such, the Court finds that a rational trier of fact could find that Defendant had 9 aided and abetted in the distribution of four ounces of methamphetamine on September 7, 10 2010.

11 The government presented evidence that, on September 10, 2010, agents intercepted 12 calls between Defendant, Nunes, and Lopez discussing whether Nunes or Lopez were going 13 to pick up "food", a colloquial term for methamphetamine, to bring back to Reno for Monday,
14 when the CS would be calling "to see quantities." During these calls, Defendant discussed
15 whether he would rent a car to drive to Reno, or meet Nunez or Lopez halfway, or have one
16 or both of them come up to see him in the Bay Area. An intercepted call that night 17 demonstrated that Nunes and Lopez agreed to see the Defendant the next morning. During 18 that call, Defendant informed Nunes that he "wants to have the money here."

19 The government presented evidence that, on September 11, 2010, agents intercepted 20 telephone calls between Nunes on cellular number (714) 353-4081 and Defendant on cellular 21 number (650) 477-5763 at 9:46 a.m. in which Nunes told Defendant that he was "here."
22 Defendant then told Nunes to "go get gas and leave me . . . the money there in the apartment, 23 dude." The GPS data for the phone revealed that cellular phone (714) 353-4081 had traveled 24 from Reno to the Bay area that morning. At 9:46 a.m., cellular phone number (714) 353-4081
25 was in the vicinity of 1012 East Poplar Street in San Mateo, California. A DEA agent 26 contacted members of the San Mateo Narcotics Task Force to ask for assistance in 27 conducting surveillance in the area. Task Force Agents Koti Fakava and Dan Guiney
28 responded and testified at trial to the following. Fakava had observed and photographed

1 Defendant walking up to and into 1012 East Poplar Avenue, Apartment 1, carrying a white
2 paper bag. Five minutes later, Guiney observed Nunes and Lopez leave 1012 East Poplar
3 Avenue, Apartment 1, with Lopez carrying a white paper bag. Fakava observed Nunes and 4 Lopez walk away from the apartment and approach a Nissan Infiniti with Nevada license plate
5 634 XBR, with Lopez carrying a white paper bag and placing it in the truck of the car. Around 6 the same time, agents intercepted a telephone call between Nunes and Defendant in which 7 Nunes told Defendant that "it doesn't fit where the car jack is, man, or in front." Two minutes
8 later, in another phone call between Nunes and Defendant, Defendant asked Nunes "It's tough 9 to unwrap it?" to which Nunes responded, "Yeah, man, well it's a [expletive] mess here." On 10 the intercepted call, Defendant told Nunes to "bring it over here," to which Nunes replied that 11 he was going to Defendant's house. Lopez, who had been getting a hair cut for a brief time,
12 testified that Nunes had picked him up in the Infiniti and told him that the methamphetamine
13 was in the dashboard/air conditioning vent.

14 The government presented evidence that, at 4:20 p.m., Defendant from cellular number 15 (650) 477-5763 called Lopez and told him "Get going already." Lopez told Defendant that they 16 had already left. The GPS data for cellular phone (714) 353-4081 during the intercepted 4:20 17 p.m. call revealed the cellular phone traveling from the Bay Area on Interstate 80 in the 18 direction of Reno. At 7:58 p.m., Defendant called cellular phone (714) 353-4081 to confirm 19 travel. Lopez responded that they were in Truckee. Defendant then told Lopez that Gallina, 20 a previous customer to whom Lopez had sold crystal to before, "wanted to see a little . . . when 21 you arrive, give me a call." Twenty minutes later, a DEA agent and Washoe County Deputy 22 Sheriff stopped the Nissan Infiniti bearing Nevada license plate 634 XBR, occupied by Nunes
23 and Lopez, on Interstate 80 near the outskirts of Reno. Law enforcement recovered one 24 pound of methamphetamine from inside the dashboard and recovered cellular phone (714)
25 353-2081. The DEA agent found and photographed the white paper bag in the trunk of the 26 Infiniti.

27 Later that evening, Fokava obtained a state search warrant for 1012 East Poplar
28 Avenue, Apartment 1. Law enforcement conducted a search warrant in the early morning

1 hours of September 12, 2010, and found Defendant sleeping on the couch and cellular phone
2 (650) 477-5763 on the couch were Defendant had been sleeping. During Lopez's trial
3 testimony, he identified Defendant as the person who had provided he and Nunes the crystal
4 inside the white paper bag on September 11, 2010 in 1012 East Poplar Avenue, Apartment
5 1 and as the person who was intercepted on various calls with Lopez. As such, the Court finds 6 that a rational trier of fact could find that Defendant had aided and abetted in possession with 7 intent to distribute approximately one pound of methamphetamine on September 11, 2010.
8 Accordingly, the Court DENIES Defendant's Motion for Judgment of Acquittal or in the 9 Alternative a New Trial (#157).

10 CONCLUSION

11 For the foregoing reasons, IT IS ORDERED that Defendant's Motion for Judgment of 12 Acquittal or in the Alternative a New Trial (#157) is DENIED.
